SCRAPBOOKBLOG.CO.UK - A LIFESTYLE & FAMILY BLOG

ABOUT THE BLOG

SCRAPBOOK BLOG started in 2011, though it had a different name then! I wanted to take the blog in a bit of a different direction, to act as a scrapbook of our lives so we can look back on it and remember everything, the good and the bad and everything in between.

Parenting, food, fashion, books, interiors and travel are all things that you'll find covered, with honesty and openness.

ABOUT THE FAMILY

Lauren loves: Long baths, good books, biscuits, exploring new places, dreaming about our 'forever home'.
Sam loves: Snowboarding, longboarding, camping, gadgets and binge watching boxsets.
Athena (4) loves: Painting, make-believe, reading and doing ballet & 'yoga'. Oh, and cheesy pasta!
Arlo (2) loves: Shouting, cuddles, balls and buckets & anything with wheels!

We bought our first home in 2016 and we're slowly renovating it to make it lovely! It's a 1890's cottage so needs a bit of work, it keeps us busy!

WORK WITH ME

SOME OF THE BRANDS I'VE WORKED WITH...

I am happy to review products and services that are relevant to our family, although I do always give an honest opinion; I love fun collaborations and being given creative freedom rather than writing a bog standard review! I'm willing to host competitions alongside reviews and am open to offers of sponsored content relevant to my audience.

I also offer freelance social media management and copywriting: LaurenBFreelance@gmail.com
